FROM THE PREZ.

Just a note to thank all the club members who took their time to come out and support the functions of the club. If you have not been to a Business Meeting, come find out the inner workings about the club! We had a special award presented to the club by Special Olympics. I was never so proud of all of you and especially Steve McHone. We owe him a great deal of gratitude for his devotion and loyalty to this fine cause. You made us proud. Lot's of things happening, Winston Salem Area Shag Club Party and bus trip, this continues to gather great support over 50 members attending and did we have fun! SOS is almost here and Brenda is hard at work organizing our Fun Monday Booth, the club also sold 400 Fun Monday Tickets, WOW! You all did a great job! Thanks, Evelyn for getting it done.

Hope to see you all at the Arcade at 3:30 for our BSC Tea Party. It's going to be lots of fun.

Also, don't forget the BSC Membership Appreciation Pool Party, September 6th and pig-picking....bound to be loads of fun. There are also a lot of other activities heading your way, check the website and Shag Rag for details.

On a special note, thank you all for working so hard to make your club a fun place for all. All of you work so hard all year supporting our Fund Raisers and events. There are so many of you that have stepped up to the plate and made the events happen. I hear so much about all of the good things you are doing. There is hardly a week that goes by, either someone from another club or just someone who has attended one of our functions, are so complimentary on how organized the event was and how much fun they had. There are too many to single out. Don't think your hard work is not noticed. The officers and members' thank you, keep up the good work.

Ten Things I Know For Sure By Sandra J. Casey

1. If we trust and move forward, things will happen.
2. We know the right thing to do.
3. If we are thinking in circles, we may need an outside view.
4. We usually make the same mistakes.
5. We must let go of the old to make room for the new.
6. If we do the difficult now, we can accomplish the impossible later.
7. We can never set our sights too high.
8. Ideas are worthwhile only if spoken, written or performed.
9. We sometimes bestow our paths with unseemly objects for no other reason than to jump over them.
10. The smooth path is not the right one.

In Loving Memory of Bill Flack-Passed away July 2003

Too many people put off something that brings them joy just because they haven't thought about it, don't have it on their schedule, didn't know it was coming or are too rigid to depart from their routine. I got to thinking one day about all those women on the Titanic who passed up dessert at dinner that fateful night in an effort to cut back. From then on, I've tried to be a little more flexible.

How many women out there will eat at home because their husband didn't suggest going out to dinner until after something had been thawed? Does the word "refrigeration" mean nothing to you? How often have your kids dropped in to talk and sat in silence while You watched 'Jeopardy' on television?

I cannot count the times I called my sister and said, "How about going to lunch in a half hour?" She would gasp and stammer, "I can't. I have clothes on the line. My hair is dirty. I wish I had known yesterday, I had a late breakfast, it looks like rain." And my personal favorite: "It's Monday." She died a few years ago. We never did have lunch together.

Because Americans cram so much into their lives, we tend to schedule our headaches. We live on a sparse diet of promises we make to ourselves when all the conditions are perfect! We'll go back and visit the grandparents when we get Stevie toilet-trained. We'll entertain when we replace the living-room carpet. We'll go on a second honeymoon when we get two more kids out of college.

Life has a way of accelerating as we get older. The days get shorter, and the list of promises to us gets longer. One morning, we awaken, and all we have to show for our lives is a litany of "I'm going to," "I plan on," and "Someday, when things are settled down a bit."

When anyone calls my 'seize the moment' friend, she is open to adventure and available for trips. She keeps an open mind on new ideas. Her enthusiasm for life is contagious. You talk with her for five minutes, and you're ready to trade your bad feet for a pair of Rollerblades and skip an elevator for a bungee cord.

My lips have not touched ice cream in 10 years. I love ice cream. It's just that I might as well apply it directly to my stomach with a spatula and eliminate the digestive process. The other day, I stopped the car and bought a triple-decker. If my car had hit an iceberg on the way home, I would have died happy. Now...go on and have a nice day. Do something you WANT to.....not Something on your SHOULD DO list.

If you were going to die soon and had only one phone call you could make, who would you call and what would you say? And why are you waiting? Have you ever watched kids playing on a merry go round or listened to the rain lapping on the ground? Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight or gazed at the sun into the fading night? Do you run through each day on the fly? When you ask "How are you?" Do you hear the reply? When the day is done, do you lie in your bed with the next hundred Chores running through your head?

Ever told your child, "We'll do it tomorrow." And in your haste, not see his sorrow? Ever lost touch? Let a good friendship die? Just call to say "Hi"? When you worry and hurry through your day, It is like an unopened gift....Thrown away... Life is not a race. Take it slower. Hear the music before the song is over.

Burlington Shag Club Members Only

Our sympathies go out to Roy Childress who recently lost his mother.

Editors Corner...

The club is going to be very busy over the next few months and it is important for all members to get involved. After all, this club would not be as successful as it is without members like you. Also, many of our members have been faced with many different sorrows over the last few weeks, please remember them and be thankful for everyday you have and for the friends that surround you in those days. Here are a few quotes that I feel are worthwhile in sharing:

Live your life as an exclamation, not an explanation.

*Remember no one makes it alone.
Have a grateful heart and be quick to acknowledge those who help you.*

BUS TRIP

By Angie Sharpe

WOW, if you missed the latest bus trip you will want to make sure you are on the next one. A BIG thanks goes out to Denise Upchurch who was able to organize the event and have the bus filled up and ready to go. The night started with a pre-bus party at the Ramada in (thanks to those who provided the rooms for the event). At 6:45 we all boarded the bus to set out on another adventure to a Winston-Salem event. The ride was filled with a lot of fun and fellowship between club members and guest. Baxter kept us entertained by providing card games for our enjoyment, congrats to Lauren who won a big pot of money in one of the hands. Also, thanks to Brenda for her latest rendition of Sham A.Lama. When we finally reached the city of Winston-Salem, it took us longer than normal to find the Holiday Inn. Against Ron Jefferies' advise, the bus driver decided to take us on a tour of the city. Even though this was fun we finally found our destination. We were greeted by the Winton-Salem shaggers and the one and only Ronnie and Mary Gregory (they were sellouts on this trip and decided to head up at an earlier time). The night was then full of fun and dancing and Winston-Salem once again showed us a great time. (Hey Carol, did you have a good nap!?!). As it got later in the night, we all began to realize that the party must end and loaded up on the bus. On our way out we noticed that we had left one of the members behind! Dennis Melton, where were you? After realizing this, the bus driver then headed back to the Holiday Inn and picked up Dennis. The ride home was just as fun as the ride there and the fellowship continued until we finally reached home. It was once again another successful and safe journey! Until next time.....
