June 2005

From the Presidents Pen,

Even though it has been a damp and rainy start for Spring this year, we have bolted ahead of the raindrops.

Just as the rain falls and the many drops form puddles, the Burlington Shag Club continues to form excellent ideas and plans for the club to do and be involved in. Area Shag Parties, Summer Workshop, Special Olympics Golf Tournament, Fall SOS, Christmas Party and more!!! Make sure to read ahead and make your plans to attend as many functions as possible.

Please make plans for the summer workshop scheduled for July to be held in Newbern. If you have not purchased your tickets, do so soon. There is a limited supply and they are going quickly.

If you have anyone who needs to be remembered through the sunshine committee, please make every effort to get the necessary information to Judy Hunt as soon as possible.

To all the committee chairs, keep up the good work. Keep me posted of your meetings for the dates, times, and locations.

Don't forget to start thinking about your nomination for your club's Hall of Fame entry for 2005. The information will be need very soon.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each member for the participation you have made thus far in your club events from attending Friday nights, attending the monthly business meetings, getting involved with the many committees and making sure the work gets completed as it should, to just welcoming new faces to your club each time we meet. I know we have had some hard time recently and I feel that we are on the upper side of the climb and will soon be on the top again. Continue to keep up the hard work in working together with fellow members as well as with our club home management.

The next business meeting is scheduled for June 17, 2005 at 8:00 PM at Ramada Inn Burlington. Please bring all issues and concerns to that meeting to be discussed with and among your fellow members.

Until next time, hope everyone has a great Spring.

Thought for the month:

Remember to treat everyone in the manner in which you yourself would want to be treated. We are all here for the same purpose and that is to enjoy the music, the dance, and each other. Without each other, the music and the dance would not be needed.

There has been good response from other clubs as to attendance. The Moose Lodge holds 450 people; we are looking for 300-350 to attend. Denise Upchurch is in charge of food items and the menu, let her know what you want to bring and she needs volunteers in helping getting everything set up. Be there 7-7:15 with food items, if you can't be there make other arrangements to get the food to the lodge. If possible have desserts prepared in single servings for convenience in serving. Joni James is in charge of decorations; she needs straw hats and Hawaiian shirts to put on the walls. If interested in helping with decorations be at the lodge around lunchtime.

Christmas Party: Will be held December 11thwhere to have it? Three possible locations:

1. Elks Lodge: approximate cost $1775, smoking allowed, BYOB, no security cost and no bartender cost.
2. Ramada Inn: approximate cost $1950, cash bar (club chooses bartenders), smoking allowed, food catered, security provided by the club, linen charge and located in Carolina/Duke room.

Motion was made to have it held at Ramada and 2nd. Then a motion was made to vote on all three and 2nd. Since a motion was already on the floor the motion to vote on all three was cancelled. The membership present voted 27 to 6 in favor of having it at the Ramada Inn. Next item of discussion was suggestions for the DJ at the Christmas Party. The nominations made were Johnny Wilson, Clyde Waller, Jerry Holland, Jim Waye and Tootie Brown. A motion was made to close nomination and 2nd. Nominations were closed and Sheila Walker will check with nominees to see about availability. She will report back to the membership at next business meeting.

Eno Beach Shag Club Meet the Area Shag Club Party: Will be held May 21st and there will be no bus available for the event

Meals on Wheels: Al Fogleman and Ann Haberly are willing to meet with the membership June 6th to discuss the outcome of this year's event and possible plans for next year if we choose to host it. Anyone who has questions or comments for either of them should make plans to attend the special meeting. It will be held at Ramada and the time is to be determined. Remember, if you do not attend to voice your concerns, you do not have the right to complain about what is decided by fellow members.

ACSC Summer Workshop: Will be held in New Bern and the dates are July 8-10. If you have not purchased your tickets, do so quickly, they are going fast and only a certain amount will be available. If you need registration forms see Sheila Walker.

BSC won the float contest for the 3rd year in a row and Stephanie West made the local paper. SOS Fall Migration will be held Sept. 17-24th, Joan Kimbro will be heading up Fun Monday so let her know if you are interested in helping out. The annual "Tea Party" came up for discussion...Hugh Walker suggested that we look at having it at the Pirate's Cove this year. A motion was made to have a "Tea Party" on Sept 17th, was 2nd and passed 27/1. Motion was then made to have it at Pirate's Cove and 2nd, there were several areas of concern and the motion was rescinded. Where to have the "Tea Party" has been tabled for discussion at the next meeting.

Linda Maccia: Our Christmas Cheer family is in need of help and Linda asked that the club donate money to help them out. A motion was made that the club provide the family with $200 and was 2nd. It was a unanimous vote and the club will provide the family with $200. Jackie Hollaman also donated $100 to the family. Baxter Sellars suggested doing a food drive to support the family. A motion was made to have the food drive, 2nd and passed with a unanimous vote, each member will be asked to bring a can good or nonperishable item to the Area Party in June to help support the family. This food drive will be put into the Shag Rag and on the Web.

Changes in Masters: Sheila Walker has met with Jason at Ramada and addressed the concerns of the club. Jason let her know that changes would be taking place and that Ramada did not want the club to leave Master's Bar and Lounge. Ticket sales for events and the sale of merchandise are allowed within the club and can be done at one table. The DJ would need to announce that the event tickets and merchandise are for sale in a particular area if anyone is interested. If any new or further issues arise please let Sheila Walker know about them and do not try to handle in any other manner.

No further business needed to be discussed, the meeting was adjourned.

Next business meeting will be June 17, 2005 @ 8:00pm. Location at the Ramada to be announced.

Congratulations on your win!!

The shaggers of the Carolina's are grateful to you for mentioning the beach music and shag. We hope that someone can keep the music and the dance alive. The music is not being played like it used to be. We could use all the help you can give...If it is just mentioning it. Thanks and good luck with your next event.

Chelsea Cooley wrote back to Denise the following:

Thank you so much for all of your support! I've been shaggin since I was 8 and I plan to help keep it going for as long as I can, for it is near and dear to my heart! Best wishes!
