Notes from the President...

Hello, BSC members! March is here, screaming in like a lion, with all of the upcoming events and parties that lie ahead. I'm excited to share this busy time with all of you! Float workshops, Luau meetings, Area parties, along with Quarter Auctions and Cornhole Tournaments! Most importantly, we have a very special shared interest that is THE SHAG and beach music, so let's enjoy it together!

As I am writing this letter, we've just had the first Friday night at our temporary dance sight, Rack & Rolls...it was an excellent time with a room full! Thanks, Rick Turner, for entertaining us with some fine beach tunes. Robert Searcy and wife Sharon Hall were great hosts, and were genuinely happy to have us there. While we will miss the Showtime crew for now, I look forward to many more shag nights at R&R. Burlington Shag Club has been most fortunate when it comes to FREE venues. BSC is a versatile group and we're happy when we can just get together and SHAG. For us, it's truly about the DANCE, MUSIC, and LIFESTYLE! It makes me think of the song by the Magnificents: "Wherever I Lay My Hat, That's My Home".

We also had a WONDERFUL Valentine's benefit on February 8th! Amber Allen and a hardworking crew made it another successful party for MOW, Hospice, and Living Free Ministries. The Embers and Chigger Woods kept us 'rocking that LOVE boat' on a full dance floor! It was a special, important night that we are proud of – thank you to everyone that had a hand in each part – what an exceptional team!

SOS Spring Safari is quickly approaching, and if you haven't heard, we ARE submitting a float in the SOS parade on Saturday April 25th. "Let the Good Times Roll" has been selected as the theme for the 2020 parade. Our float construction workshops are held every Saturday at Parr & Davis, as well as our bead workshops. These Saturdays are so fun with lots of tall tales accompanied by laughter, coffee, doughnuts, and time to get better acquainted with new and old friends. I want to invite everyone again to come out on Saturdays and experience it for yourself. There is a place for you – you matter, so check us out! Our famous float T-shirts will be on sale soon – look for more information and support your club's float entry with a one-of-a-kind souvenir.

One more mention about SOS – Edith Loy still has SOS cards that will gain your entry into the shag venues at Ocean Drive, NMB. Get yours ASAP for $30 now, or you'll pay $35 at the beach. Don't delay, Edith has been known to sell out!

March 14th is the Steppin' Out Mardi Gras area party at the Reidsville Elk's Lodge. Please let me or Darlene know if you are going. Doris Keaton will reserve our table(s) as long as we provide a headcount. We always have a large crowd AND a large time! Steppin' Out serves an endless buffet of tasty food and offers a cash bar. Look for their flyer in this newsletter for more information.

2020 Valentine's Party

The Valentine's benefit was a great success with the wonderful Embers Band playing some great music for us and Mr. Chigger Woods playing some great tunes and Mrs. Carol Oakley for her great line dances. They are always a joy to learn. We had 162 people in attendance. Raising a total of $2,364 to go to three great organizations within Alamance County. I would like to thank everyone that came out and worked tireless hours on the decorations for the event. A huge shout out to our Hula girls and their great performance along with a great chorographer Anna Hamlett. Thanks to the committee that helped put this event on. I am blessed to be a part of a wonderful shag family. Amber Allen 2020 Valentine's Committee Chair
