Happy November, Burlington Shag Club!

I hope everyone is enjoying the spectacular display of fall colors.

We are so fortunate to live in such a beautiful state with gorgeous seasonal changes to foliage. And we are really fortunate to live near this wonderful shag club that provides some great entertainment and social dance activities to keep us all active and enjoying life throughout the year.

October was a busy month for Burlington Shag Club. We had our Annual Membership Appreciation party at the Woodside Farm on a perfect fall weather day in a beautiful setting. Thank you to our Board of Directors and committee chairs Andrea and Scott Loy for organizing this event. It was a fun afternoon of games, laughter, great food and Butch Dawson's fantastic beach music playlists. Well done Board members! Our nominations committee was busy in October calling nominees, and we have a wonderful group of candidates that have stepped up and agreed to run for 2024 officer and board positions. Thank you to our nominations committee chairs, Robin and Buddy Richardson for your hard work! For the first three Fridays in October, Jack and I taught beginner lessons prior to our Friday Shag nights. Eleven new members joined with these October lessons. Thank you, Jack!! We finished up our October Friday Shag nights with a fabulous spooky Halloween Party, "Bad to the Bone". There was a big crowd, great decorations, yummy snacks and some very creative costumes. Our awesome DJ Steve Carter kept the dance floor full of some very interesting looking shaggers. Kudos to Jo and Lee Meyers and committee for delivering another great Halloween event! Then the last Saturday in October, we headed to our sister club, Greater Triad's area club party "Fall Frenzy" at the Greensboro Shrine Club. Part of the Junior Shag Dance Team was on hand for an exhibition dance. Always fun to watch the junior shaggers perform. DJ Kitty Earles was fantastic, and the meal catered by Country BBQ was phenomenal. Plus, the Greater Triad members had a room full of homemade desserts! Thanks to all that came out to support GTSC!

In November, we will have a celebration on the first Friday Shag night, Nov 3rd to honor Carol Oakley for her National Living Legends award. Be sure to come and congratulate Carol! On Saturday November 11th, we look forward to Rick Turner and cooking crew grilling Boston butts at Ronnie Gregory's backyard. Contact Mary Gregory if you would like to pre-order a Boston Butt for $35 or Sauce for $6. The butts will be ready for pick up at 2pm. At our November business meeting, we will hold our 2024 Officer and Board Member elections. See information in this newsletter on the candidates. Please come out and show your support by voting.

Saturday December 2nd is our Christmas Party "Let It Snow, Let it Snow" at Burlington Shrine Club. The DJ will be the great Furman Dominick from Manning, South Carolina. Tickets are $40. See Mary Gregory or Darlene Oakley to purchase. We will install newly elected BSC 2024 officers and board members at this party. The party features filet or chicken, baked potato, salad and an open bar. Can't beat that deal!

We are off to a good start on ticket sales for our Valentine Charity Dinner Dance at the Alamance Country Club. A "Double Shot of my Baby's Love" fundraiser event is slated for Saturday February 10th, 2024, and will feature the high energy and highly sought after Swingin' Medallions and one of our favorite DJs, Furman Dominick. This will be a fun filled elegant night for two worthy local charities, Authoracare Collective (hospice) and Meals on Wheels. Event chairs,

Allen Roney and Cindy Foust and their committee are working hard to sell tickets and sponsorships to make this a successful fundraiser event. Please get your tickets early and help us sell out before January 1st. We want this event to win Cammy event of the year! We can do it with your support! Tickets are $75 and available on Friday Shag Nights at Rack N Rolls. See Allen or Cindy to purchase! This year is quickly coming to a close. Time truly does fly when you are having fun! I have enjoyed being your President and will cherish all the memories we have made this year. Thank you all for your help, support, kind words and most important your friendship...I love you all!

- November 3rd Carol Oakley Celebration Night
- November 11th Boston Butt Sale
